

What is the NAMI Peer-to-Peer Education Program?

NAMI Peer-to-Peer is a free, 10-session course for adults living with mental health challenges. NAMI Peer-to-Peer provides an educational setting focused on recovery that offers respect, understanding, encouragement and hope. The NAMI Peer-to-Peer education program is:

- Free and confidential
- Held {once} a week for four hours
- Taught by trained Peer Mentors living in recovery themselves
- A great resource for information on mental health and recovery

NAMI Beaver County, the local organization of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, will offer its NAMI Peer-to-Peer Education Program for the Fall, beginning , September 28,2014. It will be held Sundays at 1-5 pm at NAMI Beaver County Office,1229 3rd Beaver, PA. 15009

Participant Perspectives

“This course has literally been a life saver. It has opened my eyes to better understanding my illness and methods of recovery I did not know about before taking NAMI Peer-to-Peer.”

“Since taking the course I have gained employment and committed to my recovery.”

“NAMI Peer-to-Peer gave me a better understanding of the mental illness I have and how to manage it.”
